Form and Costs

All copies of the bid must be submitted in hard copy using the above referred address. No remuneration will be paid by GIZ for preparing the bid.

Subsequent corrections or modifications to the bid can be submitted until the deadline for submission and must be made in the same form as the bid.

The bid must be based on the General Terms and Conditions of Contract ('Terms and Conditions local', Annex 4) for supplying services and work on behalf of the Deutsche Gesellschaft für Internationale Zusammenarbeit (GIZ) GmbH. In the event of an award of contract, it will become an integral part of the contract. The bidder's general terms and conditions of business or payment do not apply.

If you are forming a bidding consortium or association, the bid must show who the members are and how the work is divided between them. Specifically, all members must name the lead member and authorize this member to represent the association and to receive payments on behalf of the other members. The members must also acknowledge joint and several liabilities for performing the contract. A corresponding written authorization must be attached to the bid.

Content of the technical offer

The technical offer submitted must contain a detailed methodological concept in accordance with the terms of reference which allows technical evaluation in terms of the objective of the measure.

Furthermore, the technical offer must contain the Curricula vitae for the experts proposed for the project. CVs should include information on:

- name, title, nationality, date and place of birth, education and professional training,
- professional experience showing length of employment, countries of assignment, positions held, projects and programs and responsibilities and management experience,
- special knowledge, language skills showing fluency.

The offer shall be submitted in the language of the tender documents.

The technical offer may not include any price information. Non-compliance may result in your bid not being considered.

Content of the price offer

The price offer must contain the fee per expert, the travel costs (flight costs etc.) and other cost if necessary, in local currency and specified according Annex 3 (price offer must be made as per the GIZ template - attached to this letter as Annex 3_ Bid sheet template). Please see the attached Terms of Reference for details of the job quantities required. Personnel costs should be shown on the basis of days.

Please calculate your prices on a net basis. Taxes should be indicated separately.

Evaluation of Offer

After the final technical evaluation (cf. Assessment Grid for the Technical Evaluation of Bids, Annex 2), only the price offers of bids with at least 500 points will be opened and evaluated. Technical offers below 500 points will be considered as technical not acceptable. The technical offer has a weighting of 70%, the price offer 30%.

The evaluation of the bids is scheduled to be completed by July.06. 2021.

The final result is an overall ranking, headed by the most cost-effective bid. Contract negotiations will be initiated on the basis of this overall ranking.

Commencement of work

The work is scheduled to commence on July 15.2021. Your bid is binding until that date. If you do not receive an order in writing until that date, your bid has not been accepted. You shall not receive separate notice to this effect.

Following receipt of this letter, we ask you to confirm with the above-mentioned contact person whether or not you intend to submit a bid.

With best regards,
